A Note From Your Photographer....

Thank you for choosing Raymar Photography.

Since our first year in operation, we have strived to continually improved both the quality and the creative elements in our work. Poses, props, back-grounds and lighting have constantly evolved to offer new and unusual variety to our sittings.

In preparing for your sitting, be sure to plan for both a full-length portrait as well as close-up poses. Dressy outfits are great for special holidays, but don't overlook those (knock-around) jeans and casual outfits for the everyday look.

We also encourage bringing along any special favorites, such as hats, jackets, etc. By working together, we will produce images for you and your loved ones to enjoy for years to come.
